Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, the participant should be better able to:

- 1 Identify key tasks in medical education and daily professional life that can be streamlined or enhanced using Generative AI, and experiment with AI tools to explore their potential for increasing productivity.
- 2 Analyze the ethical and privacy considerations associated with using Generative AI, including the risks of sharing sensitive information, and apply best practices to protect data integrity and confidentiality.
- 3 Utilize Generative AI as a thought partner to generate creative solutions, enhance critical thinking, and develop novel approaches to problem-solving in medical education and faculty responsibilities.
