

Unapproved or “Off-label” Uses Policy

Presenters or discussants in CME activities sponsored by Case Western Reserve University are obligated to inform the audience if and when they discuss or reference the use of therapeutic agents or other commercial products that are not FDA approved or such discussion or reference is contrary to their labeling. Presenters are required to sign a statement on the Disclosure Form acknowledging that obligation.